

About People
And Things
BY C. B. McDOWELL

Atlanta has always been an interesting city to me. During a recent visit there our grandson took us on a tour of the older section of the city, located south of the State Capitol. Here we saw a house dating back to 187 which escaped the burning of General Sherman's devastating march to the sea. We saw long streets paved with wooden blocks that were plenty rough.

Decatur is a city of beautiful homes, churches and schools. It has a comparatively small industrial zone, but it is primarily a residential city of approximately 100,000 population. The First Baptist Church has 12 acres of ground located in the center of the city. It has $20,000 worth of air conditioning.

We went out to the State University Faculty Lodge, a beautiful spot near Decatur, where members, their families and friends can spend delightful relaxation periods. The grounds are well equipped with swimming pool, picnic grounds, recreational facilities, etc. Six of our party went to see the latest invention in the movie world, Cinerama. The picture are photographed by three cameras specially placed on an airplane. The noted news commentator and reporter, Lowell Thomas, is largely responsible for this invention. The Rocky Theatre in Atlanta and theatres in Washington, D. C. New York City, Boston and Chicago are the only places where Cinerama has been shown up to now. The theatre has to be especially equipped and at great expense.

When we learned that tickets to "The Seven Wonders of the World" cost $3.50 per each, Mrs. McDowell and I decided they were too rich for our blood, but our son who was our best made it possible. I wouldn't have missed it for much more.

The old seven wonders of the world about which we studied in the history books vividly shown comprehensively explained. Then we were taken on a trip around the world, visiting the high points of North and South America, Europe, Asia and Africa. It was a wonderful portrayal of the world's wonder spots as they exist today, accounts of which are almost unbelievable.

On this world tour, we visited so many places and saw so many sights, it would be folly to try to enumerate them. However, I cannot resist the urge to mention a breath-taking runaway-train ride in the Himalaya Mountains of South America.

All of the passengers and the train crew left the train at one point to help push it over a hump, with the exception of one hobo. We were loaded onto the stalled train and away it went on its thrilling race down the mountain slopes. A roller-coaster ride or loop-the-loop escapade could be compared with that train ride.

The train got up such speed, the track was so crooked and frail and the going was so rough that a wreck seemed momentarily imminent. I became decidedly dizzy and faint, but we finally reached the bottom of the grade in safety. Fortunately, as soon as we got off that train, our faintness and dizziness disappeared.

There was one feature of the episode I did not quite understand: How all those people who were left by the runaway train, which must have traveled several miles, were quietly awaiting the arrival of the train at the stopping point.

I wouldn't advise Manager Dozier Roberts to book any Cinerama pictures for the Elba Theatre anytime soon.

ENTERPRISE IN
JUBILEE WEEK

Enterprise plays host this week to its pioneers, former residents and friends who return for the huge Diamond Jubilee week which closes Saturday night.

Jubilee events began Sunday afternoon when Judge George Wallace, Clayton, delivered an address to a non denominational audience in Municipal Stadium at 4 o'clock.

The opening ceremonies, the huge Jubilee parade, Governor's reception, coronation of the Jubilee Queen, and the first performance of the historical pageant "Diamonds of the Past" were held Monday.

A huge fireworks display will end each days activities. Tuesday was full of youth activity such as tennis tournaments, swimming, and diving contests, costume contests and Little League ball games.

A guided tour of Enterprise Industrial plants took place Wednesday. At noon, a Lion's Club Luncheon paid tribute to industrial leaders and the oldest employees.

Thursday a double header program will have an agricultural parade and demonstrations taking place while a sacred Harry Sing is being held at the High School Auditorium.

An Old Timer Box Lunch Supper is also scheduled. In pre-pageant activity, Mayor Brown of Enterprise has challenged mayors of neighboring towns to a milkline contest.

Friday the youth again hold forth with a morning program. A combined luncheon of Women's Civic Clubs will be held at noon and a Then and Now Style Show will take place in the afternoon.

The historical pageant will be presented each night on a 300 foot stage with 400 Enterprise people participating. It is the Story of Enterprise from pioneer and Indian days to the present.

MARINE FROM
CAR CRACK-UP

Jefferson A. Carney III is in Maxwell Field hospital in Montgomery, from injuries suffered in an automobile accident near Thomsville, Ga., last Wednesday evening, his aunt, Mrs. Josephine Kendrick, learned here.

She said the family here had not been able to obtain any definite details of the accident other than that Jeff was picked up and taken to the hospital at the Marine Corps Base hospital at Albany, Ga., where he is stationed. On account of the seriousness of his condition, he was transferred to Maxwell Field Hospital at Montgomery, where he was found to be suffering from a skull fracture and brain injury.

Another Marine who was a companion in the wrecked car, which is said to have hit a tree, is reported to have escaped without serious injuries. Mrs. Kendrick said it had not been determined how serious her nephew's injuries are. She said he was in a coma for several days following the accident, but regained semi-consciousness Friday evening.

Jeff was a son of the late Jefferson A. Carney II, and grandson of the late Judge Jefferson A. Carney. His mother, Mrs. Charles Crew, resides in Goodwater. He was born in Elba and resided here until about 10 years of age. He has been a member of the Marine Corps for three years and his term will expire next December.

NEW TAX FOR ELBA LOOMS, COUNCIL NEWS

By C. B. McDowell

The Elba City Council met in regular monthly session Monday night with Mayor Herschel Taylor presiding and all councilmen present. Clerk George Jones recorded the proceedings. Chairman Leslie M. Johnson, Miss Lillie Harper and Horton Ben Larkins represented the Elba Hospital Board. Dr. Johnson stated that the Board had held numerous meetings and spent many hours of valuable time and he thought the time had come for a show-down, as if no action could be taken by this time, the Board might just as well fold up and quit. He stated that the Southern Benefit Insurance Company had donated lights, air conditioning and other things that cost money in furnishing a meeting place for the Board from time to time during the past many months.

Hospital Favored
Chairman Johnson introduced Horton Ben Larkins, who made a very clear explanation of the hospital situation as he had found it after making thorough investigation. He said he had been assured by a large majority of the many Elba citizens he had contacted that they were wholeheartedly in favor of a hospital for Elba.

Mr. Larkins said he is convinced that a city sales tax is the only practical means of raising the required amount Elba must furnish in order to secure a hospital here, and it is also the fairest, as it would give every resident a share in raising the money.

Mr. Larkins said it is estimated that a one-cent sales tax would cost each resident of Elba approximately eight to nine dollars per year and would furnish approximately $30,000 per year, which would raise the amount needed to build and operate the hospital for the first five to six years.

Mr. Larkins stated that cities all over Alabama are getting hospitals, some of them smaller than Elba. He said that when a "swimmer" locates in a town or city, there are three first things he wants to know about: churches, schools and hospital facilities.

Ordinance To Be Drawn
After discussion, the Council voted to have City Attorney Charles L. Rowe draw up an ordinance levying a one cent city sales tax for securing a hospital for Elba.

It was agreed that such a tax would put the principal burden on the shoulders of the merchants of our community, and the councilmen who are merchants, comprising a majority of the membership of the body, are to be commended for their unselfish action.

Manufactory Planned
Boyd Murphree, President of the Elba Chamber of Commerce, introduced G. B. Paramore, of Marietta, Ga., who gave a clear explanation of his proposal to manufacture his "Electric Nursery Queen," an attractive form of automobile nurse.

Mr. Paramore stated that he had already raised $20,000 of the required initial $25,000 and had secured the old peanut butter factory building which he will rent from its present owner, the Flack Lumber Company. He asked the City Council to waive the city license and help out on the city taxes for a period of ten years.

Would Employ 10
He said the factory would probably employ as many as ten persons at the outset and should steadily grow into an important industry. He said he anticipates no great difficulty in selling the required

J. D. Smith, chairman of the Elba Housing Authority is in receipt of the following telegram from George Andrews, Congressman from this district, and Senators Lister Hill and John Sparkman:

"We have just been advised by the officials of the Urban-Renewal Administration of the approval of a loan in the amount of $107,004, and a capital grant in the amount of $141,729 for the Claxton Street Urban-Renewal Project in Elba, Ala. Hays is to be able to pass on this good word."

Mr. Smith said that the money will be used to carry out the community's Claxton Street low-income rental housing project, work on which should start within the near future.

AUXILIARY TO LEGION NAMES NEW OFFICERS

Officers were elected by the American Legion Auxiliary last week in the newly decorated home on Troy Highway in a joint meeting with the Legion.

They were:
Mrs. Haywood Grimes, President; Mrs. Edlow Bryon, First Vice President; Mrs. James Boswell, Second Vice President; Mrs. Charles Martin, Secretary; Mrs. Waylan Bryan, Treasurer; Mrs. Bob Borders, Sergeant at Arms; Mrs. Albert Reeves, Chaplain; Mrs. Lamar Rahner, Historian; Mrs. L. Johnson, year book Chairman; Mrs. Wayne Boswell, Counselor of Clubs. They were installed by Mrs. Bedford, State Legion Auxiliary President.

Mrs. Grimes presided over a short business meeting when it was reported that the poppy sale this year netted $43.90. The Memorial Committee reported that flowers were placed in all the churches in memory of the war dead, and cards were sent to all Gold Star Mothers Memorial Day.

After a prayer by the chaplain the meeting adjourned and a social hour followed when a buffet was served to members of the Legion, the Auxiliary and visitors.

Methodist Men's Dinner Draws 45

The Methodist Men's Club enjoyed a chicken supper at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bryant Taylor on Brantley Road last week with 45 men present, including several visitors from Enterprise.

The meal was served on tables placed in the spacious back yard and the almost ideal June night weather, coupled with well-prepared food, fine brotherly fellowship and eloquent speaking, made the occasion an unusually enjoyable one.

R. B. Martin of Enterprise was the guest speaker. He delivered an interesting address on the parable of "the talents," illustrating the importance and responsibilities of stewardship.

stock, once he is assured of the City's cooperation. Mayor Taylor and members of the Council assured Mr. Paramore that they would cooperate with him and give him every assistance within their power. He said he would go back to attend his wedding anniversary and return to Elba a week from next Monday, when he would have the lumber removed from the building and proceed with plans to get the factory started.

Horton Ben Larkins was appointed as a member of the Elba City School Board, succeeding Charles F. Hayes, Jr., whose five-year term had expired. Members of the Board are: James J. Wise, chairman; Horton H. Pick, Pleasantwood Carmley, James E. Martin and Horton Ben Larkins.

Lee Anne Meriwether, Miss America of 1955 and TV network star, representing the Alabama Tuberculosis Association supervised taking a "Thank you chest X-ray" for each member of the Alabama legislature at the state Capitol last week.

Said Dr. Otis Jordan of Tuscaloosa, President of the Alabama Tuberculosis Association, "This present legislature since taking office only a little more than two years ago, has done more for our state's tuberculosis victims than any previous group. Every member voted in favor of full state support for our tuberculosis hospitals. We are indeed happy they took advantage of our offer of a chest X-ray, thus setting an example for their constituents.

Farm Crops in Top Shape In Coffee After Slow Start

By C. B. McDowell

I went to Atlanta, Ga., last week and all the way I was impressed by the beautiful appearance of crops in all sections. I never saw them finer.

Former Police Chief J. W. Parker said Saturday that he had just returned from a trip to Mobile and he never saw the crops look better all the way between Elba and Mobile. He said he was especially impressed with the wonderful condition of the corn crop, and cotton and peanuts are also looking fine.

Similar reports are coming in from farmers from all directions.

Dorsey Pays Cash Incentive Equal To 50 Per Cent of Base Pay During May

By C. B. McDowell

The Dorsey Trailers accounting department announced this week that it has completed its audit for the month of May and its total profit sharing percentage figure, including cash incentive pay and retirement fund, amounted to 57.2 per cent of covered employees' base wages for last month.

The company decided to pay the majority of the above percentage figure in cash incentive wages and 7.2 per cent of the total to the retirement fund. This makes the cash incentive contribution equal to 50 per cent of each covered employee's base wages for the past month.

The company states that it hopes all employees realize that by paying so much of its total profit sharing percentage in cash, it is not building as great a contribution to its retirement fund as was done last year. This year's contribution to the fund will be a little more than one-half of what it was last year, but it is thought the new policy will be popular with a majority of the employees.

Management said that in the inspection department is an ideal position to compare the overall improvements in workmanship and appearance made in the trailers produced from week to week. It has been comparing stock trailers sold recently that were built some 12 months ago and it is remarkable to see the improvement made in workmanship and overall appearance in those trailers and the ones being produced today.

Management said that in the retions from Elba. They say that although crops got off to a rather slow start that last spring and considerable replanting was necessary, recent showers alluring April, May and June, have made all crops grow as fast as ever seen in this section.

Considerable boll weevil activity has been reported, but cotton farmers have learned how to control the pest pretty well and they say prospects are good for good yields from the limited allotments of cotton acreage. Prospects for bumper corn and peanut crops were never brighter.

While in Elba he took an active part in church, Sunday School, educational and civic affairs, his home in West Elba being a popular social center for a host of friends.

About 20 years ago, Mr. Mitchell moved with his family to Montgomery where he resumed his run as engineer on the main line of the Atlantic Coast Line and was one of the oldest employees of that railway system at the time of his retirement.

Survivors include two sons, Byrd H. Mitchell, Jr. and Phil F. Mitchell, both of Montgomery; two daughters, Mrs. Francis A. Farris and Mrs. P. P. Mitchell, both of Verbena, and Joseph A. Mitchell, Montgomery; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Oliver, Birmingham, and Mrs. Frank Hastings, Andalusia 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Frazier Memorial Methodist Church with the Rev. Sam C. Shihah and the Rev. T. J. Gross officiating. Burial was in Oakland Annex Cemetery. Nephews served as pallbearers.

Railroad officials, in commenting on Mr. Mitchell's ability as an engineer, have said that they could always tell when Byrd was pulling their car, as no other engineer could pull a train so smoothly as he.

A special election to fill the vacancy in the Southeast Commissioners District of Coffee County, created by the death of N. M. Johnson, has been formally ordered by the Commissioners Court. It was presumed that an appointment would be made by Governor Graves, but it has been learned that under the provisions of a local law, which has been in existence since 1887, the vacancy must be filled by a special election.

The Court, at its meeting held this week, also passed a resolution fixing the salary of the Chief Deputy Sheriff at $1,500 per year, payable in installments of $125 per month, beginning March 1, 1958. He has heretofore received $900 per year, and by a special act of the Legislature, the Sheriff's office has been given a Special Deputy for the Enterprise office, with a salary fixed at $1,500 per year. Under terms of the resolution, the Special Deputy's office will be abolished and the local act will be repealed at the coming session of the Legislature. A bill was introduced by Representative W. C. Braswell and passed by the Legislature, repealing the act, but it failed to pass in the Senate. By agreement, the act will be repealed now, and notice to this effect is being published in this issue of The Clipper.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephen Lee announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sara, to Jefferson Albert Carmley, Jr., the marriage to take place at an early date. This announcement is of cordial interest to a host of friends. The bride-to-be is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lee, and because of her pleasing manner and sweet disposition, she has been very popular among the younger social set. Mr. Carmley is a son of Judge and Mrs. J. A. Carmley. He has many commendable traits and is highly esteemed by a large number of friends.

Mrs. Howard McClellan and daughter, Peggy, left Tuesday for their home in Monticello, Fla., after a visit in the home of Mrs. McClellan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McDowell. Mrs. McDowell accompanied them to the airport for a visit with her daughter, Miss Frances and Mary June McDowell, student nurses at Moody Hospital.

Mrs. L. A. Crawford and children of Tampa, Fla., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Talley, on Smith avenue.

The Bible story of the Good Samaritan is being exemplified in a practical way by members of the Elba Baptist Church and Sunday School. Mrs. Thelma Griffin, who is in a serious condition of health, is being cared for by her brothers and sisters in a manner that shows that Christianity is not the hollow shilling that some skeptics would have us believe. Dr. C. P. Hayes is donating his services. D. J. Brooks is furnishing the needed medicines and has also offered to stand for $25 of Mrs. Griffin's hospital expenses. Two Sunday School classes are employing a cook at the Griffin home to prepare the patient's meals. The patient's eldest daughter will be expected to continue in school the rest of this term. No. The Good Samaritan idea is not a myth or a fantasy, but is an inspiring reality right here in our community.

Ex-Service Men Set High College Marks

In a study just released, Columbia College in New York reports that students attending college following military service complete a higher academic record.

The College made the study to determine the success of the school's policy of affording a "second chance" to students dropped for academic failure and who subsequently reenter college following a period of military service.

Resultant statistics show that of the 68 cases for the decade, 1946-56, 63 per cent completed the second chance. "Particularly significant," declared a spokesman for the College, "is the fact that of the students who were readmitted following military service 72 per cent succeeded, as compared with 58 per cent of those who had been engaged in civilian employment. Indeed," he continued, "the data seem to reveal that the actual length of the 'redemption period' (six months a year, two years, or more) does not have as much significance as the nature of the interim occupation."

Navy Veterans Can Take Service Study

A golden opportunity now awaits former Navy veterans who desire training in a Navy Trade School before going to sea on their next tour of duty. The Navy is now offering to qualified former Navy men the opportunity to re-enlist and go directly to a Navy Service School. This new re-enlistment and go to school program is effective now to Navy veterans who can meet the requirements for Navy Schools. This will enable former Navy men who qualify for schools to be assigned to one prior to re-enlisting. Chief Petty Officer Paul W. Smith of the Dethan Navy Recruiting Station said that each man who wishes to apply for this program will have to be screened individually to determine his qualifications.

"Yes," replied O. Cyprus. "When

I came here I couldn't utter a word.

I had scarcely a hair on my head. I didn't have the strength to walk across my bed."

"That's wonderful," the father said.

"How, how have you been here?"

"I've been here," Cyprus said.

Good news about tree planting! More and more farmers are growing timber as a business. Out in California, there's been a lot of tree planting. The American Forest Service has been busy for almost two years now. You know, it's an industry movement. It's a movement to encourage landowners who voluntarily protect their woodlands from fire, insects, disease and grazing, and who harvest for repeated crops!

I know a girl who was remodeling her house recently. She needed some beams to reinforce the floor—she had a big black beam from her woods for nineteen 74-foot granite beams. She was windfall! According to our local forester, the wood beams are worth only about a tenth of the value of the trees!

Brundidge To Get New Primary School

TROY—Details were released today on the proposed construction of the first 2 schools in Pike County under provisions of the will of Gov. Charles Henderson.

A complete school plant will be constructed at Spring Hill community south of Troy at an estimated cost of $75,000.

A primary unit will be erected at Pike County High School of Brundidge. It will cost an estimated $65,000.

Bids are expected to be asked on the two projects within 60 days.

Plans were announced by Corley Chapman, chairman of the Charles Henderson Educational Ass., set up under the will of Henderson who was governor of Alabama from 1912 to 1916. Henderson died in 1957 and in his will provided that a trust fund and educational association should be set up to encourage and foster education by the erecting and equipping of schools in Pike County.

The former governor's estate was valued at $15 million at his death. It is now estimated at more than $4.5 million.

A recent court decree interpreting the will left the association with more freedom in building schools in the county.

Chapman said "Architects" are preparing detail plans for a complete school plant at Spring Hill, composed of six classrooms, a cafeteria, kitchen, office, restrooms and teachers lounge."

The primary unit at Pike County High, Brundidge, will consist of six classrooms, office, health room, restrooms and teachers lounge, he said.

"The association will probably be ready to ask for bids on these projects within the next 60 days," Chapman said.

"Funds available to the association this year should be ample to build and equip these two de-separate needed buildings."

News Veteran Recalls Printer's 'Devil' Days; Thinks They Are Still Key Cogs

By C. B. McDOWELL

Sonny Inman recently asked me if the Clipper still had any ink. When I asked him why, he replied that his son, Bobby, who holds the important position of printer's 'devil' in the clipper office, gets so much ink on his clothes that he was afraid the supply might be running low.

All of which brought back fond recollections to me. If my saintly mother were living, she would understand how to

YOUNG ADULTS OF METHODIST PLAN MEETING

The annual Young Adult Assembly of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of The Methodist Church will again be held at Blue Lake Camp, Andalusia, June 21-23.

The Rev. Edwin Tewksbury, a staff member of the Department of Christian Education of Andalusia, Methodist Board of Education, will be the principal speaker for the week-end. In addition to his responsibilities as speaker, he will lead a discussion group in "Social Action and World Service."

Besides the Rev. Tewksbury's contributions, there will be interest groups to meet the needs, concerns and interest of Young Adults. These groups will be as follows: Worship and Music — Rev. James D. Ellis, Pensacola; Study and Worship — W. C. Dwy, Mobile; Evangelism and Church Loyalty — Rev. R. L. Hoagland, Jr., Abbeville; Recreation and Creative Arts — Rev. Edwin F. Jernigan; Leaders of Young Adults — Mrs. Martha T. Watson, Rev. Jernigan and Mrs. Alice Thornton of Troy will conduct the craft program for the week-end.

Plans for the Assembly have been made by the Conference Young Adult Council. Mr. Bruce Burson, Selma, President; Mrs. Donald Hunter, Andalusia, 1st Vice-President; Mrs. Eleanor Matthews, Prattville, 2nd Vice-President; Rev. Jim Rains, Verona, 3rd Vice-President; and Mrs. R. M. Brown, Troy, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Assembly will open with registration at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, the 21st. Total expense for the week-end will be $10.00. All Young Adults interested in attending should contact Rev. Laurence W. Coles, 310-13 Quarry Savings Life Building, Montgomery 4, Alabama.

Cancer Removed From Right Hand

Leamon LeCompt, one of Coffee County's prominent farmers and soil band depositors, has returned from Birmingham, where he had a cancer removed from the back of his right hand.

Mr. LeCompt said the sore on his hand had been troubling him for several months. It started at two years ago, resembling a mole. Finally, it developed into a painful cancer. He said he simply laid his hand on the operating table and the doctor carved it off without pomp or ceremony.

ZION CHAPEL

Old Tabernacle To Have Homecoming

Annual Homecoming day will be observed at Old Tabernacle Methodist Church, 12 miles northeast of Enterprise on Rockledge highway, Sunday, June 23.

The 11 o'clock sermon will be delivered by the Rev. W. P. Hardwick of Andalusia, formerly of the Old Tabernacle community. Picnic lunch will be served at the noon hour.

Everyone is invited. Rev. John Williams is the pastor.

Finds Alaska Not Like Sunny Elba

Robert H. More said that he recently received a letter from his daughter, Arline who with her little son, Duane, went to Fairbanks, Alaska, last February to join her husband, Charles Kile, who is in the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Fairbanks.

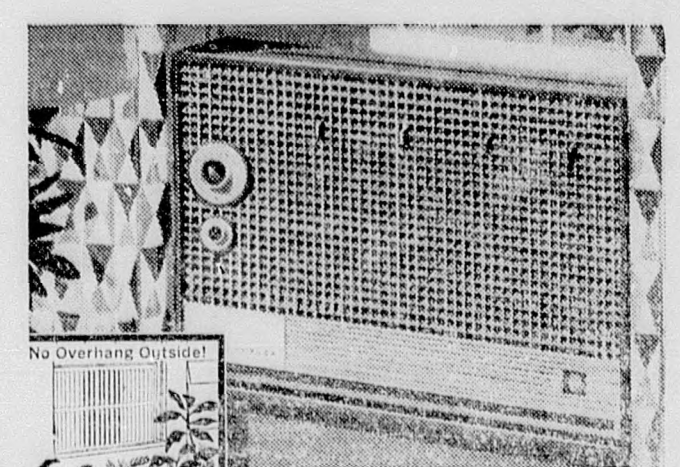

Mrs. Kile said that the weather in that part of the world is either cold or too hot for comfort. Sub-zero temperatures were the rule during the winter while now 90 degree temperatures are the rule.

Mr. More and his little grand son were almost constant companions while Duane was living in the Moore home and the little boy, according to his mother, misses his grandfather more than anyone else while in faraway Alaska. She said that when the boy's father was called away for several weeks, Duane said: "Let's go and stay with Granddaddy while Daddy is away."

CEMETERY WORKING

There will be a cemetery working at the Danusac Baptist Church Monday, June 24. All are asked to be there early and bring their own implements.

Gifts Showered On Mrs. Sanders At Surprise Party

A surprise party honoring Mrs. Charles Sanders was given Monday night, June 10, at a farewell reception to her. The guests met in the home of Mrs. Elsie Brunson and went in a body to the Sanders home at 7:30 p.m. A shower of gifts was given to the honoree and after these were opened and displayed the hostesses, Mrs. Elsie Brunson and Mrs. George Hockett served refreshments to the following: Mesdames Annie Bess Rowe, Doris Burnett, Martha Hughes, Frances Prior, Julia Jeter, Teresa Rowell, Johnnie Taylor, Gloria Brazz, Melon McClellan, Elsie Clark, Judy Broderick, Anne Doster, and the honoree and her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Pat Doyle of Stuttgart, Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders will leave at an early date to make their home in DeFuniak Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin and little daughter of Warwick, Va., was the inspiration for a lovely seated tea on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robbie Russell on Smith avenue.

The living room was very inviting with a profusion of mixed summer flowers in low bowls here and there. The honoree was becomingly dressed in an off shoulder morning dress of gray polished cotton with touches of white. Iced drinks with party dainties were served by the hostesses, assisted by Misses Edwin Boone.

Guest list included Mesdames Leslie Johnson, E. M. Warr, James Devane, Horton Fick, J. D. Whitman, Ernie Paul, Pauline Allen, Irving Johnson, Lynn Coffee, Lamar Rainer, Jr., Grover Taylor, Charlie McNeil, Colin Whitman, Ellis Brazelton, Fred Young, Mary Foreman, Mary Fincher, Edwin Jones, Mrs. Thomas and Misses Frances Conner, Edwin Boone and the honoree, Mrs. Griffin (nee Bee Borders).
